Dear Mr. Craven:

This is the third Initial Agency Decision (IAD) to your June 3, 2019, Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) FOIA Service. You requested a copy of "All partnership details – including copies of draft and final contracts and email communication between agency and private sector stakeholders for the recently inked partnerships with Janssen Pharmaceuticals/Johnson + Johnson for Spravato (detailed here: <https://www.va.gov/opa/pressrel/pressrelease.cfm?id=5220>) Records searched should be between Jan. 1, 2010 and present day. E-mail key words include: "MOU," "side effects," "spravato," "Wilkie," "Trump," "FDA." That same day, June 3, 2019, you modified the timeframe of your request to January 1, 2019 and present day.

On June 11, 2019, the VA FOIA Service acknowledged receipt of your request and advised that your request fell under the cognizance of the Veterans Health Administration (VHA). Your request was referred to and received by the VHA on June 11, 2019.

On June 21, 2019, the VHA acknowledged receipt of your request and advised that your request falls under the cognizance of the VA Office of the Secretary (OSVA). Your request was referred to and received by the OSVA on June 21, 2019. Please accept this as the OSVA's acknowledgment of receipt of your FOIA request and first interim IAD.

On July 12, 2019, we searched the VA Secretary's Center for Strategic Partnerships for "All partnership details regarding Spravato for the time frame of January 1, 2019 thru present date."

On July 18, 2019, we released to you 852 pages in their entirety and 27 pages were partially released pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § (b)(6), FOIA Exemption 6.

On August 23, 2019, we conducted a search of the mailboxes of Jake Leinenkugel, Peter O'Rourke, Darin Selnick, Jim Byrne, Robert Wilkie, Pamela Powers, and Deborah Scher for records responsive to your request. The timeframe for the search was January 1, 2019 through August 13, 2019 the date in which the Office of Information and Technology (OIT) provided us with the mailboxes. The search terms applied to our search consisted of MOU, side effects, Spravato, Wilkie, Trump, and FDA.

Please know, the timeframe for the mailbox pertaining to Deborah Scher only covers April 21, 2019 through August 13, 2019. As such, on September 13, 2019, we requested OIT provide us with her mailbox for the timeframe of January 1, 2019 through April 20, 2019. On September 20, 2019, we received the OIT results revealing no additional responsive records from January 1, 2019 through April 20, 2019.

On September 20, 2019, released 355 pages of responsive records. Of those pages, we determined that 185 pages were releasable in their entirety and 83 pages were partially releasable pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § (b)(6), FOIA Exemption 6. FOIA Exemption 6 exempts from disclosure of personnel or medical files and similar files the release of which would cause a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. This requires a balancing of the public's right to disclosure against the individual's right to privacy. The privacy interests of the individuals in the records you have requested outweigh any minimal public interest in disclosure of the information. Any private interest you may have in that information does not factor into the aforementioned balancing test. Specifically, the information being withheld, as indicated on the enclosed documents, under FOIA Exemption 6, consists of names; we however release the names and VA email addresses of VA Senior Executives. Federal civilian employees and private citizens retain a significant privacy interest under certain circumstances, such as in instances where the release of their information could represent a threat to their well-being, harassment, or their ability to function within their sphere of employment. The federal civilian employees and private citizens whose information is at issue have a substantial privacy interest in their personal information. In weighing the private versus the public interest, except names and VA email addresses of VA Senior Executives, we find that there is no public interest in knowing the names, identities, email addresses, VA usernames, phone numbers, cellular numbers, and facsimile numbers of federal civilian employees and private citizens. The coverage of FOIA Exemption 6 is absolute unless the FOIA requester can demonstrate a countervailing public interest in the requested information by demonstrating that the individual is in a position to provide the requested information to members of the general public and that the information requested contributes significantly to the public's understanding of the activities of the Federal government. Additionally, the requester must demonstrate how the public's need to understand the information significantly outweighs the privacy interest of the person to whom the information pertains. Upon consideration of the records, I have not been able to identify a countervailing public interest of sufficient magnitude to outweigh the privacy interest of the individuals whose names are redacted. The protected information has been redacted and (b)(6) inserted. "Withholding a telephone number or e-mail address, alone, is not sufficient to protect that [privacy] interest; alternate means of contacting and harassing these employees would be readily discoverable on the Internet if this court ordered their names disclosed." Long v. Immigration & Customs Enf't, 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 160719 (D.C. Cir. 2017).

We now release the remaining 87 pages, Bates numbered 000965-000973, 001152-001190, and 001196- 001234. After reviewing the 87 pages, we redacted some information with FOIA Exemption 4. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4) exempts from disclosure "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential." "Where commercial or financial information is both customarily and actually treated as private by its owner and provided to the government under an assurance of privacy, the information is "confidential" within Exemption 4's meaning." Food Marketing Inst. v. Argus Media, No. 18-481, at *2 (U.S. June 24, 2019). Redacted information includes non-public, specific information about Johnson & Johnson's Quickfire Challenges or technical approaches. Such information is marked confidential, and offerors typically treat such as commercially private information or having received an assurance of privacy from the VA. Johnson & Johnson objected to the release of such information.
